The Very Rev. Francis J. Cavanaugh, O.S.A., bestows on Father Cornelius Lehane, O.S.A., the white habit and cross of an Augustinian missionary.

SOPHOMORES

... FOR NEW

On the opening orientation days in autumn all four scholastic classes and found facing, not only the camera, but the new frontiers of a year of studies, sports and school events.

... WHILE NEW ARRIVALS WATCH —

One of the first frontiers to be pointed to was that of Japan, when Fr Cornelius Lehane, O.S.A. was assigned from Mendel to the Augustinian Mission in Kanagawa-Ken, Japan.

A DEPARTURE . . .

The Very Rev. Francis J. Cavanaugh, O.S.A., the Prior — Provincial of the Augustinian Province of Our Mother of Good Counsel, reads the official appointment of obedience.

FRONTIERS IN KANAGAWA-KEN, JAPAN

AND WAIT

Father Lehane extends his priestly hands in blessing the newly founded Mission Club which promotes the spirit of sacrifice for missionary support.

THE
NEW FRONTIER
CAME
IN COATS

There certainly hasn't been a better Teacher to sit at the feet of since Him

The coats have given a new polish as well as a new appearance to the new frontiers and very few swelter under the burden

LEARNING
NEW CHEERS
FROM OLD PROS

Even the standard cheers come in for some energized refurbishing

THE PARENTS,
TOO, SAW
ON THE
NEW

The parents of the sons of the new frontiers came gradually to realize that it was more than their sons that came to school

The school "Handbook" of rules and conduct is passed to the parents to become acquainted with first; their sons are the next to get it

The administration makes it clear

From the standpoint of studies, the New Frontiers opened an Honors Program for the college-bound.

Whether decked with new signs of the times — that we are “college preparatory” or just plain welcoming you — the new frontiers are well marked.

THE NEW FRONTIER HAD IT'S NEW LOOK

Mendel has been “newly frontierized,” so to speak, even up to its third floor physical education room

Or in the newly located, merchandise-expanded bookstore (Mrs. Jean Griffin attending)

Or in the more accommodating surroundings of a modernized faculty lounge much of which outfitting had been the fruit of a past raffle and a magazine subscription drive in which top salesmen walked off with their prizes.

Just an amenity a convenience on the new frontier: coat racks to expedite a swift departure.

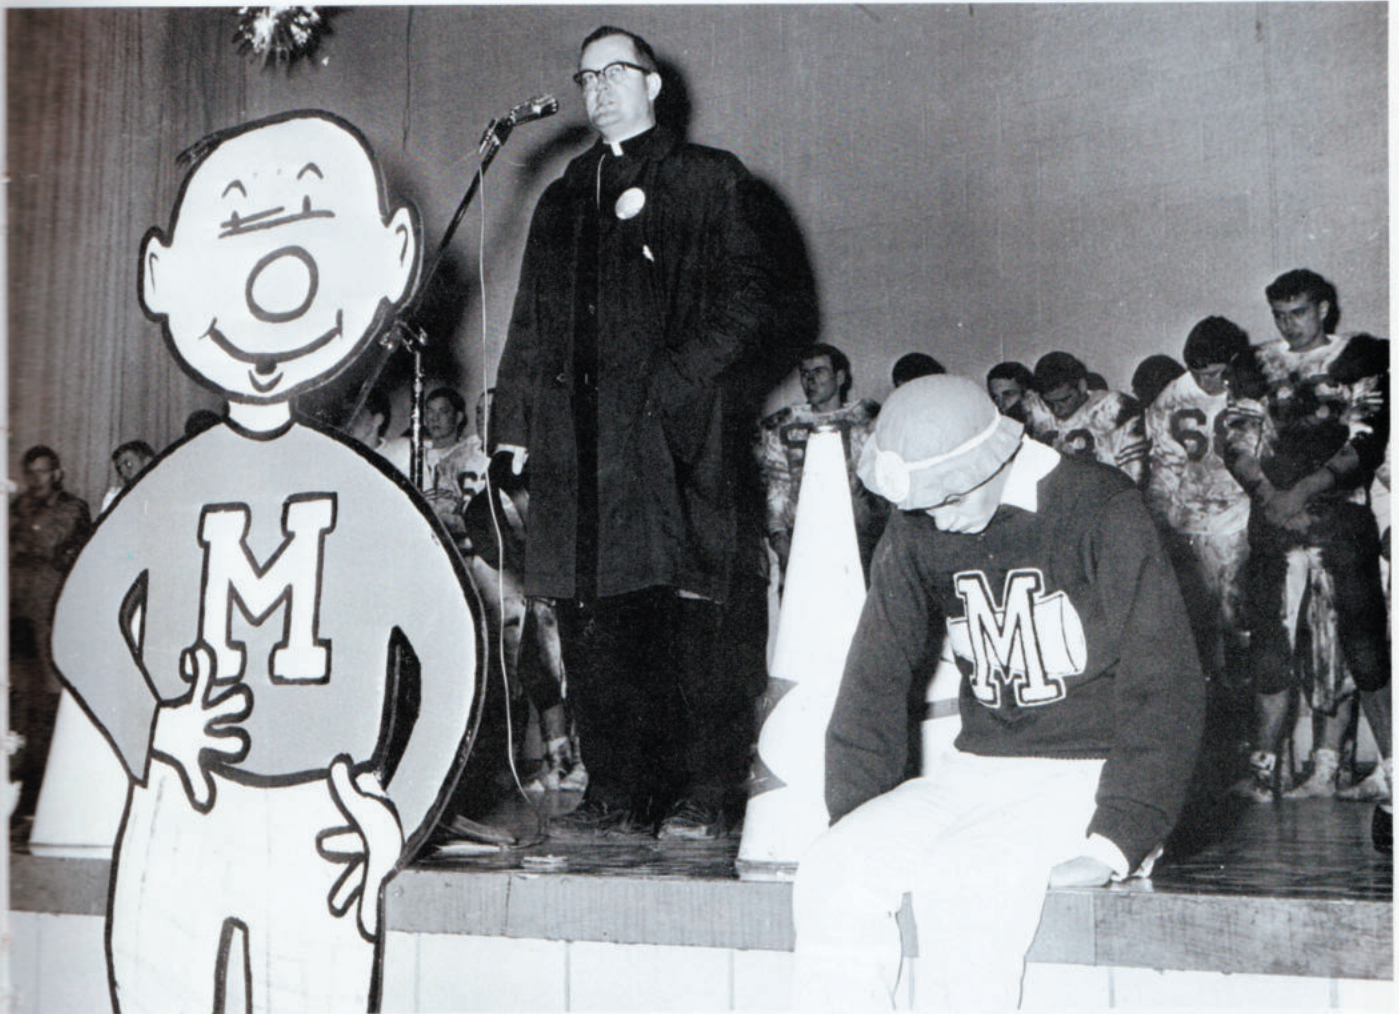

A new Lay Faculty Lunch Room provided something of an escape hatch, a haven.

As new to Mendel as their new white coats, the Glee Club is and will be one of the bright spots on the New Frontier

You can always count on the freshmen to strut their stuff at their first Homecoming game. To them the New Frontiers open wide.

EVEN

FRONTIER

The newest and hardest frontier to establish is spirit — a spirit, which when put to the test, can stand it. We claim that it has. When spirit has its leaders, new frontiers will last

ADMINISTRATION

In weekly consultation with the Principal, Rev. John McNabb, O.S.A., and the Prior of the monastery and school, Rev. John L. Seary, O.S.A. (foreground), the vice-rectors: Rev. Ronald Turcich, O.S.A., in charge of Student Activities; Rev. John Gavin, O.S.A., in charge of Guidance and Counseling; Rev. Bernard McConville, O.S.A., in charge of the Office of Discipline; and Rev. Albert Hillebrand, O.S.A., in charge of Academic Affairs — maintain a co-operative effort in all areas of instruction and supervision. Only when there is such a united organization can there be a power and force felt prevailing throughout the school.

PRIOR PROVINCIAL

Elected to the post of Prior Provincial in June of 1962, Father Cavanaugh now devotes the time, talent and energy that he once displayed as Rector of Mendel from 1956-1959 toward the betterment of the Mid-western Province of the Augustinian Fathers. His constant concern over all provincial matters has lead to the expanding and building of a new minor seminary at Holland, Michigan. Father also is investigating a new missionary territory in Peru in keeping with the ecumenical trend in the Church. May his term in office be guided by God with wisdom and blessed by God with vigor

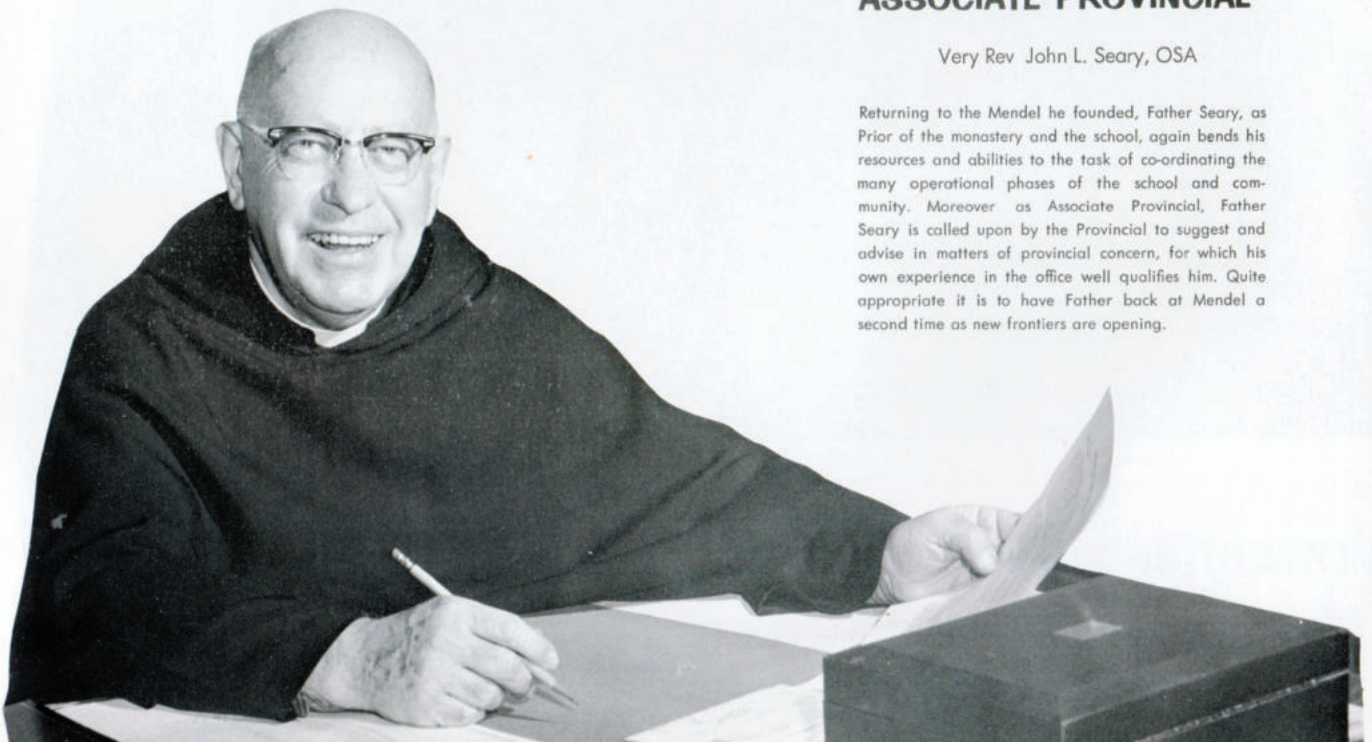

Very Rev Francis J. Cavanaugh, OSA

PRIOR & ASSOCIATE PROVINCIAL

Very Rev John L. Seary, OSA

Returning to the Mendel he founded, Father Seary, as Prior of the monastery and the school, again bends his resources and abilities to the task of co-ordinating the many operational phases of the school and community. Moreover as Associate Provincial, Father Seary is called upon by the Provincial to suggest and advise in matters of provincial concern, for which his own experience in the office well qualifies him. Quite appropriate it is to have Father back at Mendel a second time as new frontiers are opening.

MENDEL DEANS OF DEPARTMENTS

Standing as keystones in each of the academic departments, the deans of departments, each in his field, are instructional assistants to the Rector. Not just as subject specialists, but as persons with a broad outlook on the entire instructional program of the school, the deans serve as a council on questions of co-ordination between departments and members. Looked to for ideas they are the mainstream of communication between the administration and the teacher.

PISCES

are the sleek, silver signs in the blue of the richness that the rains and teeming waters bring to a virulent but thirsty earth. The learning sought by Mendel Men is not to make themselves rich, but to improve our world where it is dry as a constellation combines in one brave, bold symbol both truth and falsehood: in the great claws grasping for the truths on which to feed as student minds and a stinging tail turned to strike at the falsehood of error when raced against a fox, the story goes, the dog didn't win but was rewarded by the great Zeus by being placed in the sky. For Mendel the Dog signifies that even modest attempts at success are cause alone for a reward.

SCORPIO

SCORPION

CANO

MR. M.

Though no such pattern of stars really exists, (at least no astronaut or astronomer has seen it yet) the men of Mendel in their own minds, emblazon their pert little man on the night skies by their own indelible enthusiasm. The jaunty Mr. M. comes alive just as much as we want to make him emerge in bright outline.

At rallies: where even the backs of their heads showed their interest as well as spirit

At assemblies: where the dead-panning has a zombie-like effect

At the games: where everyone seems to react slightly differently

ALWAYS — THERE WERE CROWDS . . .

At dances: where mugging the camera is a favorite indoor sport

At homecoming: where it's the freshmen's time to howl is the many stringed instrument from which a harmony pours. As the heavenly bodies moving in a steady tempo, Mendel's galaxy of clubs and groups are meshed to function as a unit, sounding out one symphony. The strings vibrate, each at its different key, to create one year's song.

LYRA

THE HARP

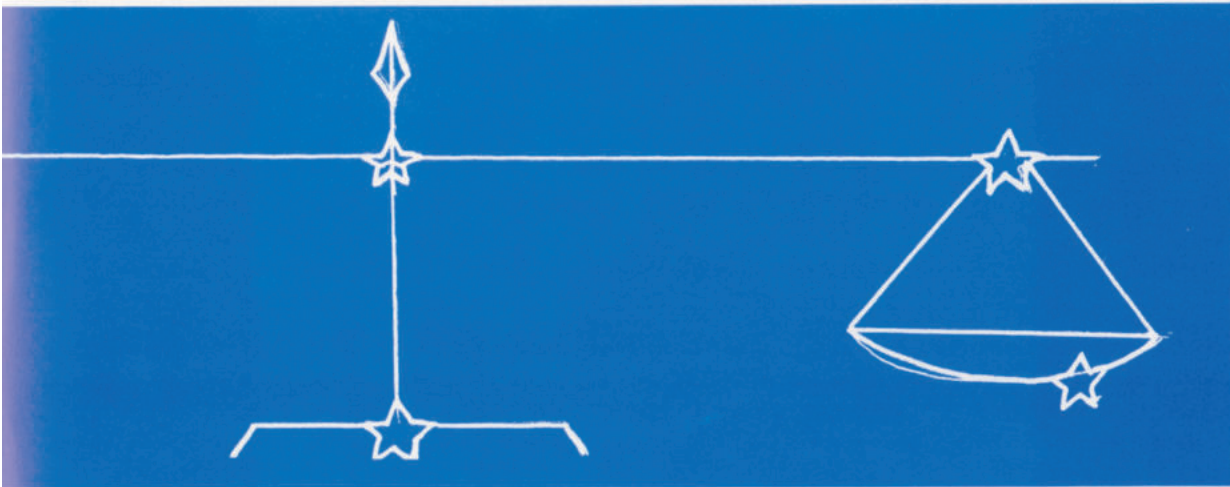

ORION

THE HUNTER

was the protector of the queen of the gods, as Mendel is the center and core of the attentive concern paid by the groups who cluster about her. Orion boasted there was no animal that would not be his prey. Mendel's many associations tackle projects of all kinds, turning to all necessities.

ORGANIZATIONS

denote the equality of night and day at the autumnal equinox, and we might imply that delicate balance of self-development to be achieved by growing inwardly while relating outwardly. A Mendel man is not centered in himself but is directed outwards toward others.

THE SCALES

MENDEL STUDENT SENATE

These two aerial views (from the height of a ladder) are panoramic pictures in every sense of the word, since they take in all the sections of the school in the person of the first representative of each scholastic class. The senators, so to speak, in their regular weekly meetings, promote the welfare of the school, reflect student views, encourage student co-operation with the faculty and co-ordinate extra-curricular activities.

Extending in wide lines and standing as sentinals on the new frontiers of Mendel's academic program, the National Honor Society is comprised of men who have been active in the phases of academic life and achieved a measure of success beyond the ordinary

MENDEL MOTHER'S CLUB

With a membership that for a practical purposes numbers the mother of every Mendel man, the Mothers' Club is perhaps the best attended of the school organizations, considering the frequency of its meetings. Any one of its social gatherings for the benefit of the school, will always draw hundreds of mothers and their friends.

Board members get together in the business of enlisting members.

The Board: SEATED: Mrs. T Deasey, Mrs. C. Peterson, Mrs. Hoffman; STANDING: Mrs. W Rakowski, Mrs. E. Engebrigtsen, Mrs. A. Barbieri, Mrs. L. Gasperec, Fr John McNabb, Rector Fr Albert Hillebrand, Moderator Mrs. L. Kloss, Mrs. A. Jablonowski, Mrs. T Weyer Mrs. S. Oskilanec.

Like something from another world: giant Santa Clauses.

The Mendel Concert band entertained them at Christmas.

The annual card party drew hordes of mothers in February.

Father O'Rourke was back among old friends: Mrs. F Gary, Mrs. W DeVries, Mrs. L. Kloss, Mrs. A. Jablonowski, Fr W O'Rourke, Mrs. L. Gasperec.

All the best people come to their affairs: Fr McNabb, Fr Cavanaugh, Provincial, Fr Seary, Prior and Assc. Provincial.

More laden than kings they brought presents aplenty; KNEELING: Mrs. F Senerchia, Mrs. J. Capron; STANDING: Mrs. C. Wagner Mrs. J. Santacaterina, Mrs. L. Gasperec, Mrs. H. Shafer Mrs. C. Peterson, Mrs. A. Barbieri, Mrs. G. Ruther Mrs. H. Foy.

Fr Hillebrand rolls out tickets to raffle a door prize, charming them all.

MENDEL FATHERS' CLUB

J. Canna, Mr Pizzarino himself, and R. McGrath look like life-long friends and only after two shows here.

The constitution of the Father Club clearly focuses on its purposes: To inspire and activate parents for the closer fellowship and guidance of their sons; to encourage social and cultural relationships among its members; to strengthen and perpetuate the cultural, social and athletic interests of their sons; to co-operate with the faculty for advancement in all areas. In the four Father-Son meetings held this year those were the reasons for displaying the wrestling and gymnastics team, the glee club and the concert bands.

One of the four Father-Son get-togethers that the Fathers' Club sponsored.

The board — SEATED: R. McGrath, Pres., A. Novak, Treas., R. Kramer 1st Vice-Pres., C. Corte, Fr Turcich, Moderator J. Canna, J. Spitz, A. Oliaro; STANDING: F Pavidon, J. Gentile, W Stewart, J. Gibney, S. Kernogis, G. Nicoli, S. Stanczak, A. Dirindin, F. Leggero, C. Dicosola, Cor-Sec. J. Weyer J. Bartzczak, P Walther Rec-Sec., J. Toscano, J. Dougherty J. Rossi, L. Carli.

The Fathers Club sure drew the crowd that night, the Wednesday before Thanksgiving.

There aren't any turkeys at all at a "turkey shoot."

The Martinique banquet was the usual "crush."

Fathers' Club members do their recruiting in the early part of the season.

Why shouldn't Father Hennessey smile that big, broad smile look at those averages per week.

MENDEL'S MISSION AND FIVE HUNDRED CLUB

"The last one to throw in a quarter is a whall-apaloo" (whatever that is) Spurred on by its diligent moderator, Fr Hennessey, and taking a new spark upon Fr Lehane's departure, the Mission Club almost entered the ranks of a competitive sport, to wit, tossing quarters in the mission bank. Fifty-five percent of the student body were doing it; five sections (at last count) were 100% sharpies at it. A quarter had to go in every week to carry the "Mission Club Honor Card." Of eleven hundred cards printed up, over 1,000 were out every week. Here we can only show the men who passed the banks.

SANCTUARY SOCIETY

87

The Sanctuary Society took on new life in this year of the new frontiers, by finding even more Mendel men of the real Mendel stuff who were willing to sacrifice some hours of sleep to serve Mass at seven o'clock. Having regular appointed weeks on which to be present for serving has helped to set a purpose and a goal, for those that faithfully fulfilled them, that will go with them through the years.

At His command: L. Foster, J. Masse, T. Regan, M. Kasalo, P. Wittosch, K. DelPriore, D. Rodal, W. Edwards, K. Cogan, P. McKenna, E. Dudley, D. Miller, G. Quinn, J. Wiehn, J. Peth, D. Magee, G. Kalata, J. Madden, J. Jaros, J. Masbrook, R. Bird, L. Nelson, T. Heinz, M. Henneberry, R. Lewis, J. Egan, C. Sharp, F. Malec.

MENDEL KEY CLUB

The Key Clubbers, if you will, ran through the gamut of their annual endeavors with their Moderator, Fr Metzger, at the helm: Peanut Day (now long salted away), Kiwanis Candy Sale (with sweet results), a television appearance on "The Other Guy" and adding to boot (and that's what they needed: see below) an ice-coating contest commonly called a car wash. Finishing off the year in fine style, the Clubbers are in cahoots with others from Fenger and St Willibrord to arrange for entertainment for their state convention to be held at the Edgewater Beach in April. (Fine style, as we said.)

He wasn't just looking for sympathy as one of the three blind mice.

Our fine-feathered friends seem to have caught a little "fowl" weather (Now really)

It's a bus, Nelson, so better not try milking it

MENDEL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Alumni Association attempts, as one of its objectives in its written constitution states, to maintain efficient means of communication among its members and between the school and its members. A new frontier was reached in achieving this purpose in the form of a circular news letter announcing activities, news, whereabouts of old grads, what they're doing, what's going on. A new hospitality prevailed at homecoming for old grads as well at the even more successful Alumni Banquet, honoring the class of '58, that brought the Monarchs their tag of "Magnificent" by winning the City Championship in football

- 4 — John Hannon, at least, was aware the photographer was in the homecoming "hospitality room."

Are there nine or eighteen men on that Color Guard, tell me?

There is a blare of trumpets from the start of the year right up to the end.

They are all "lost in their music" like good musicians.

Charming the fans after bitter defeat or cheering them on after a win, the band is always on hand at the rallies.

The Color Guard does exactly that: guards the "colors" by parading them with honor at the football games. This adds to the color and requires constant drilling sessions. The positions of the men are: R. McGrath, Cmdr.; Flag-Bearers: T Bojanowski, R. Reher, M. Gaspar, J. Valente; Gun-Bearers: W Brunson, G. Carlson, E. Ellison, S. Stronski.

The Color Guard strikes a stance; one of them even snatches a sly side glance.

Band Members (Cont.): S. Kujala, C. Lake, R. Landeck, T. Lustik, D. Madden, R. Marek, J. Masse, J. McClellan, R. McGrath, W. McNicholas, D. Munro, L. Murphy, M. Naughton, D. Parker, J. Podlin, M. Poutry, W. Prepura, J. Randall, R. Reher, T. Renner, M. Rice, T. Salchert, R. Scruggs, C. Sharp, J. T. Sharp, J. M. Sharp, R. Shepherd, W. Sieracki, G. Simnick, B. Souder, R. Sowa, J. Stoyhoff, S. To be a band member is like marrying a tuba: you're at it all the time. Long are the number of working hours for the band and everybody knows when they're at work; you can't miss them. It's a toss-up to say who practices more to play at a football game: the team? or the band. Only by dint of hard practice could 16 out of 14 who were entered in the Ensemble Competition take first awards.

MENDEL MARCHING BAND

The note has to be 99.44% pure.

Going under the 103rd St. viaduct, the band wades its way to the homecoming.

The Glee Club is the newest rising star over Mendel's new frontiers. In one year's time the young men and their voices have come into bloom as fresh as their white coats. The Cadet Band, too, was organized as the fitting compliment of the already well-established Concert Band.

This whole complex and rangey organization is under the governance of the Music Association working under the close direction of the school. The total of man-hours spent in polishing and perfecting these groups is almost beyond reckoning.

Mr Michael Hines, Fr. Kret, Fr. McConville and Mr. Pacetti make their plans for the next band event.

Somebody's going to lose a lung in that contest with Gasperec, Wiegand and Frey.

And in the center of it all and riding high, it's Mr "M."

Newly instigated on the new frontiers, the Mendel Pep Squad offered more than just the assurance of a ride to the most distant outpost such as Gordon, Ignatius or wherever. The pep squad was that atomic pile of lung-men who activated all the cheering. And at their center was their fearless leader, Father Koenig, who was the jolly ticket agent for every gay safari.

MENDEL Y.C.S. GROUP

The Young Christian Student (hence YCS) movement, began internationally 30 years ago, reached Mendel recently as a new frontier. For forty-five minutes each week the group meets to discuss what they have observed to be student problems, attempt to judge what Christ-like solutions there might be, and to encourage one another to act as Christ would have them.

Fr Stobba, the moderator starts the ball rolling with his sophomores: T Jablonsky, W Brunson, P McGlave, T Moses, M. Bon-signore, K. Celic, C. Olejniczak, M. Cuyjet.

MENDEL CHEERLEADERS

In that highly articulate ("A-cum-ba-ba") and vocal group ("We're from Mendel yell a little louder") commonly called the cheerleaders, there will always be capsulized (there were nine capsules this year) a concentrated dose of that vitamin every school needs called Spirit. They sowed the seeds of a spirit that took deeper root this year. It's reported they found a whole supply of such seed in the rector's office with a note to go out and sow it.

- 1 "That gang that sang 'Our colors blue and white'"; L. Gasperec, J. Sheehan, R. Shem, E. Weigan, R. Frey, R. Malone, J. Zamban, R. Barbieri.
- 2 "Trip it lightly as we go look ma we've had our Cheerios."
- 3 L. Gasperec (doing a tap dance routine), a guy with a meg caught in his throat, the indubitable Mr. M. (A Ruzkowski creation), R. Calabrese (making Ralph Calabrese noises) and E. Weigan (practicing his Mitch Miller).

- 5 - "Rock, Rice, Rock Rice " And we did.
- 6 - "Ring out wild bell please." (R. Malone)
- 7 - And when it comes right down to it, who cheers the cheerleaders.

Here are some new Monarch recruits. Color them in line: M. Bogie, K. Wozniak, S. Kochanowicz, W Brunson, T Waljeski.

MENDELIAN & MONARCH

In the current craze for coloring books we thought we would offer one of our own, making something of a sacrificial lamb out of your two local news sources, the Mendelian and the Monarch. (For "up-to-the-minute news coverage" listen to the announcement period at 2:10 p.m.) These two pages, therefore, are dedicated to our two local sources of news and history. All kidding aside, these two staffs are made up of the men who want to keep Mendel's history updated: a loyal and spirited motive. So "the following program is brought to you in living color," or pretty close to it, considering photography and what we had to work with.

Here is your play-by-play sports staff; color them optimistic with a twinge of regret: G. Zuberksy T Jensen, D. Ballweber T Roy, W Evans, R. McCabe, T McKenna, T Gibney.

Here's the chap known better til now as the "Mortician" — D. Campbell. Color him lifeless.

Here are the typists; color them finger-sore (and if it's a matter of re-typing just color them sore): S. Jablonowski, R. Doszak, R. Ciecierski.

Here are "The Off beats" (aren't they though?): J. Nasarzewski, R. Nelson, D. Horn. Color them witty, newsy and quaint — in that order

MENDEL DEBATING SOCIETY

Fresh laurels (meaning the trophy below) were coming to Mendel via a more and more flourishing debating group. This year the team placed third in the Chicago Catholic Forensic League junior tournament, thus winning the trophy Not bad for its first year in the League. Beside hosting a tournament late in the fall, Mendel also placed seventh in the Chicago City Finals in a field of 32 schools.

A library's dead if it's not up-to-date. Ours is still much alive, especially when there's new life going into its veins at the rate of about 300 books a year. But that's not all: an opaque projector was added at ten dollars a pound (35 lbs.), the Cortina Spanish Language Courses (in fifteen drill-packed lessons), six Tribune filmstrips on current (Republican) events, and a Living Shakespeare Recording series (just the thing for the really live library).

MENDEL CHEMISTRY CLUB

As an adjunct to their regular class, the men of the Chemistry club meet almost weekly to extend their knowl-edge into new frontiers. This year they delved more deeply into crystallization and the chemical occurrence called "bounding." It seems they got stuck there when mid-years and the raffle came.

MENDEL MATH CLUB

Discussing topics for which the school program could not even take the time, the Math Club went beyond the classroom. In the weekly meetings such areas were covered as: derivative as applied to velocity and acceleration and integrals as they apply to areas and volumes.

FIRST ROW: T Pawloski, J. Markovich, J. Nyderek; SECOND ROW: R. Plobanek, W. Baltuska, R. Vandenburg, K. Fus, K. Francis, Mr Osowski, Moderator M. Shannon, E. Fee, P. Kuhel, J. Nasarzewski.

It achieved some sort of unofficial championship by downing each one of the schools that it challenged: 9 wins and 5 losses over Ignatius the first time it played them; 7 wins, 3 losses, 3 ties with Rice; 10½ wins and 2½ losses with Ignatius (a second time). Or to make it simple, out of some 40 matches: 25 were won (.625), 9 lost (.225), and 6 drawn (.150)

It looks like a trick with mirrors.

Even before the Mendel men report in September—and maybe its better that way—the Mendelettes are twirling batons on the back parking lot. Their loyalty adds as much to the football atmosphere as their looks. They're always up front but they, too, can get overlooked when thanks are being passed around. Here at the end of our organization section we wish to let them know they take no back seat in the Mendel picture.

MENDELETES

They look as if they know the Mendel spirit.

Someone taught them how to toe the line.

They all seem, for some reason, to want to step over that railing.

All the truly fairs wore flowers.

DIPPER

in its ancient role of guiding the mariner's wanderings in search of new frontiers, so Mendel sets its course by it in each man's struggle to be a physical, mental and moral monarch. The competition of athletics creates dead-lock adventures enough to challenge the best in any man.

HERCULES

in all his eight fabled labors called upon great reserves of strength for each special task. Each Mendel team and squad turns its skills and powers to their given tasks. And true to the marvel of energy renewing itself, where strength is generously spent, new life is being unleashed in each new contest on the new frontiers.

HERCULES

MENDEL FOOTBALL SEASON

The hard fighting Monarchs ended a heartbreaking season with a three and five over-all season record.

In the first practice game the experimenting Mendel men were squeezed out by Gordon Tech, 8-7

On September fifteenth under the lights of Gately Stadium, the typical Mendel fight came to the fore. That evening saw the DePaul Demons leave for the North side with a 20-6 defeat

Our regular season opened on a dim note to the tune of a 14-8 loss at the hands of the Leo Lions.

On the following Sunday the Monarchs went down in defeat once again to a powerful Rita squad. After forty-eight rugged minutes the score was Rita 20, Mendel, 6.

Next came the city champs, Fenwick, and with them came Mendel's only shutout, 25-0.

October 14th was a bright light in the dark season as the Monarchs destroyed St Ignatius, 46-0. After this shot in the arm, arch-rival Brother Rice came up against a fired-up Mendel team and was turned away, 21 to 14.

The season ended with a damp, frigid homecoming against Mt. Carmel. Our lighter team found it slippery going, and lost 20 to 6.

A 2 and 4 league record left the Monarchs in a 3 way tie for 3rd place.

In a season which proved successful for the lights and disappointing for the heavies many odd and surprising things happened. For one, our heavies spilled the bowl of Rice Crusaders, who just two weeks before hit 100 points.

When the lights faced Leo here at home the night was both amusing and unusual: Leo's whole bench, except for two Simon Pures, had fouled out. It made a cozy party, two and two, but hardly basketball. The lights, of course, made the play offs, and our heavies, well, next year we've got center H. Suerth, and guards K. Urich, L. Modjeski, and Mike Lewis coming back to battle.

Father looks it over with the critical eye of a connoisseur

With a touch of the spaceman and quite as much concern

Father Gavin, the Athletic Moderator and baseball coach, and Lou Guida, wrestling coach and assistant football coach, are colorful, active forces on Mendel's sports frontiers. Hence we feature them here. Their sincere interest in and guidance of Mendel monarchs, is only matched by their own solid manliness. These two "G's," as their names imply, are worth more than thousands to Mendel; they are two grand monarchs themselves.

Have no fear: Father Lou's got it all under control.

Father's colorful commentary could catch the ear of even those close to the game.

As enthusiastic as any for the sweet taste of a win, Father dosi-dos with P Ormsby.

Always highly regarded by the Monarchs themselves: he got the game ball from Rice.

"Whaddaya think this is? any how?"

At one end of the bench Fr Gavin explains football to Joe Phelon, while at the other Lou makes like a Marlborough man.

"All I gotta say is all I gotta say."

Lou seems to be advocating some rather direct methods to Mike Pavilon.

Back in practice, Lou's boys might seem to be groping for ant-hills, but they're really not.

Say, Lou, you're not making this thing any easier let me tell you.

That's J. Chicrado in a "Wisconsin pin"; that's the ref in a funny position.

First in the gym, then out behind the garage, Fr Gavin sets the pace.

Of the twenty-one games scheduled in their season, the team began hot and fast with three wins. The improvement of K. Urich and T Zajeski are looked to as compensation for the loss of a star pitcher, G. Goes, and the heaviest hitter, R. Smith. J Bednarczyk is a senior and a newcomer to a team, which counts on close to a dozen seniors. Among them, D. Zajeski is the only senior southpaw and can expect to be something of a workhorse for the season. H. Suerth, also, will be serving double duty between the pitcher's mound and third base, since his hitting earned him a berth in the regular ine-up. And by admission of their own team mates, Frank and Pat Ganser are going to be the two men most watched by scouts.

The coach has trophy-eyes, but the only question is whether a predominantly junior pitching staff can meet the senior and seasoned pitchers from Rice and Rita way

Overlooking the loss of the two city titles that were within reach of sprinkling salt on the proverbial bird's tail, the Senior and Junior teams put both South Section trophies to bed in the Monarch trophy case. This was for the second time in two years that the four teams have brought home four nice hunks of bacon. The teams were top dog until the final game when Gordon Tech toppled them.

With Palmer Park so close at hand, Mendel's tennis team at least can find ample opportunities to shape up for their coming matches and tournaments. The biggest splash on the new frontier at Mendel this year was the initiation of a swimming and diving team. A water-polo team was the natural subsidiary to the other two teams, recruiting some seasoned players from park teams. Pointing toward next season when Mendel will enter the Catholic High School Swim League, the water-polo team will have participated in Chicago Park District meets and tournaments and A.A.U. events. The progress of these teams and men is furthered through the personnel and facilities of the West Pullman Park Pool. The school's thanks go out to the coaches at the park.

The new frontiers at Mendel would not be anything like their Patomac-side counterpart if it did not promote physical fitness. As long as the country is on the "vigor" kick, Mendel's right in stride (not 50 miles worth yet) by sporting a completely outfitted phys-ed room. All to the credit of the student-body is their backing of a magazine subscription drive which made it possible to obtain the equipment. We move ahead with "ghrreat vigor," knowing that a better body quite often means a better mind.

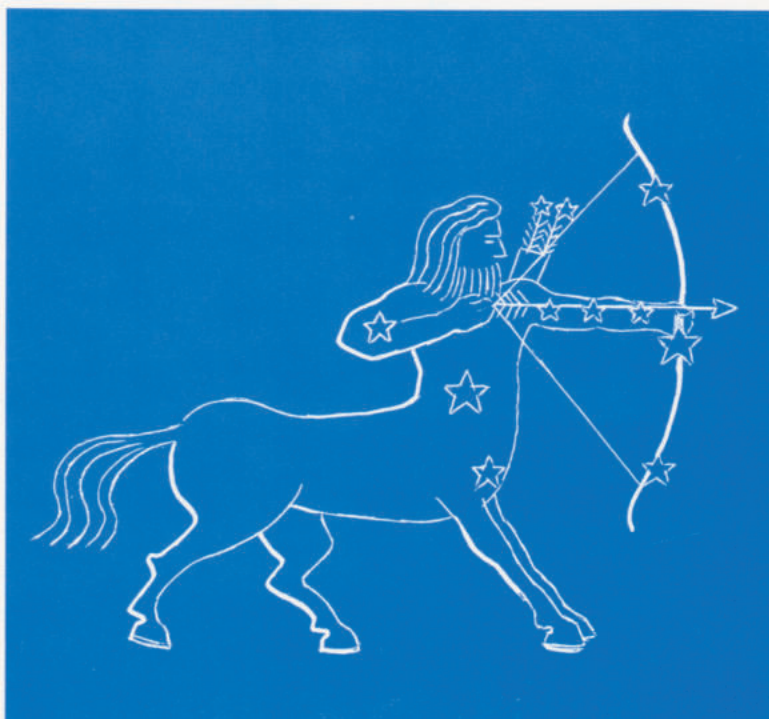

HOROLOGIUM THE CLOCK

is quite obviously the sign and key to all planning, such as must be considered in the daily, monthly calendar of a school's activities and events. "Timed-by-the-stars" is what we all are and whatever we do, it will be to silent slipping of the stars above new-wakening frontiers.

SAGITTARIUS THE ARCHER

is the super marksman of the forest of galaxies that spread out over the night skies. As he sets his mark and target in the center of his eye, so Mendel's each activity aims at that over-riding, prime success of leaving a man, not just a legacy of learning, but a character rounded and prepared for social living.

ACTIVITIES

THE LION

not just a lion, but a monarch, outstanding in the pride of tawny predators. The inclination of the true monarch lies in association with others but with a deep sense of leadership. The activities of Mendel are exactly what each monarch makes them: hence every monarch is something of a leader

- 1 — Could be Mrs. O'Leary's making trouble with that cow again.
- 2 — Go ahead and sic 'em, Phil, but whose your friend there Coach?
- 3 — A fender man from the Body Shop finishes off a job.
- 4 — The whole game story is written more on G. Farrell's face than on the scoreboard.

- 5 — All the lads and lasses of the Queen's Court and Miss Chicago not the least of them.
- 6 — Fr McConville, Mr McGrath and Fr Turcich huddle together under a giant mushroom.
- 7 — Colonel Wittsch, the parade marshal, checks each unit in.
- 8 — The rain couldn't put out the inferno at the pregame rally.

- 9 — The parade needed a real rocket to get it off the ground.
- 10-11-12 — The dance contest was wild and full of winners.

There seems to be a bit of a blaze.

3 — It was just a sign that we were going to beat their pants off

4 — Cooking Carmel corn under soggy conditions is not recommended.

5 — It wasn't just inclement — it was miserable.

6 — Inside — things were just a little more snug.

7 — "WHO PUT THE GUMBALL IN THE CRUCIBLE."

Nothing gets soggier and more sad looking than crepe paper in the rain. And that's all there was that Homecoming Weekend, as you remember (Nov 2-4) Dropping the football game to Carmel (20-6) put an even bigger damper on the final day As for welcoming back alumni, of that there was aplenty; and we hope that the present senior crowd that's moving out, will be back with us for the ninth homecoming weekend.

EIGHTH ANNUAL HOMECOMING WEEKEND

TAKE IT AWAY

1 — Apparently they're practicing hook shots.

2 — M. Altman brings alive "Paris in Springtime."

3 — R. Nelson seems to be captaining Mendel's Monarch Butterfly Team.

4 — The "Steam Heat Quintette" minus One, warms up the audience for what's to follow.

134

5 — Rounding out that "Ole Debil Moon," A. Gregori himself

6 — Our own Hugh Downes, G. Zuberky.

7 — P. Rakowski digs deep for that next note.

8 — Le Can Can always quickens the tempo of the house and catches the greatest applause.

9 — So goes the story in dance of "St. Louie Lou."

10 — The braves presumably sing the same song as the squaws.

11 — It always happens: one day off, and the Rockettes fall apart

12 — C. Salmon cuts a nifty caper

Mendel's musical this year was a six-nighter round-the-world cruise. A four-hundred bell performance (because that's how many stars were in the crew), Joe Hayes, Mr Superplenimum himself, molded the lads and lasses into as many patterns and postures as was humanly possible. And then some that were not. The launching as well as the landing of the big boat was one hectic, hilarious heap o' work in the traditional Mendel manner

- 1 Even Monday morning in a Macedonian chicken-mart was more organized than this.
- 2 C. Salmon and D. Ballweber make like a revival meeting.
- 3 - R. Shem, T. Regan and J. Laughlin look like three Little Red Riding-Hoods, where really one would do.
- 4 - M. Shannon and his boys belt it out in black ties, black vests and bowlers.

- 5 - And they've all got to be changed into full costume in the same room in five minutes.
- 6 - Maybe something was just said about a free day.
- 7 - That's director Joe Hayes himself hamming it up back there in the white scarf

Don't do it boy, you're too young and it's too drastic. (T O'Keefe)

Hey worried look, in a little while it will all be over

Young man, wiping your brow, why do you sweat so? (W. Cummins)

"Are you sure you've got it all straight?" (T Nelson and J. Doyle)

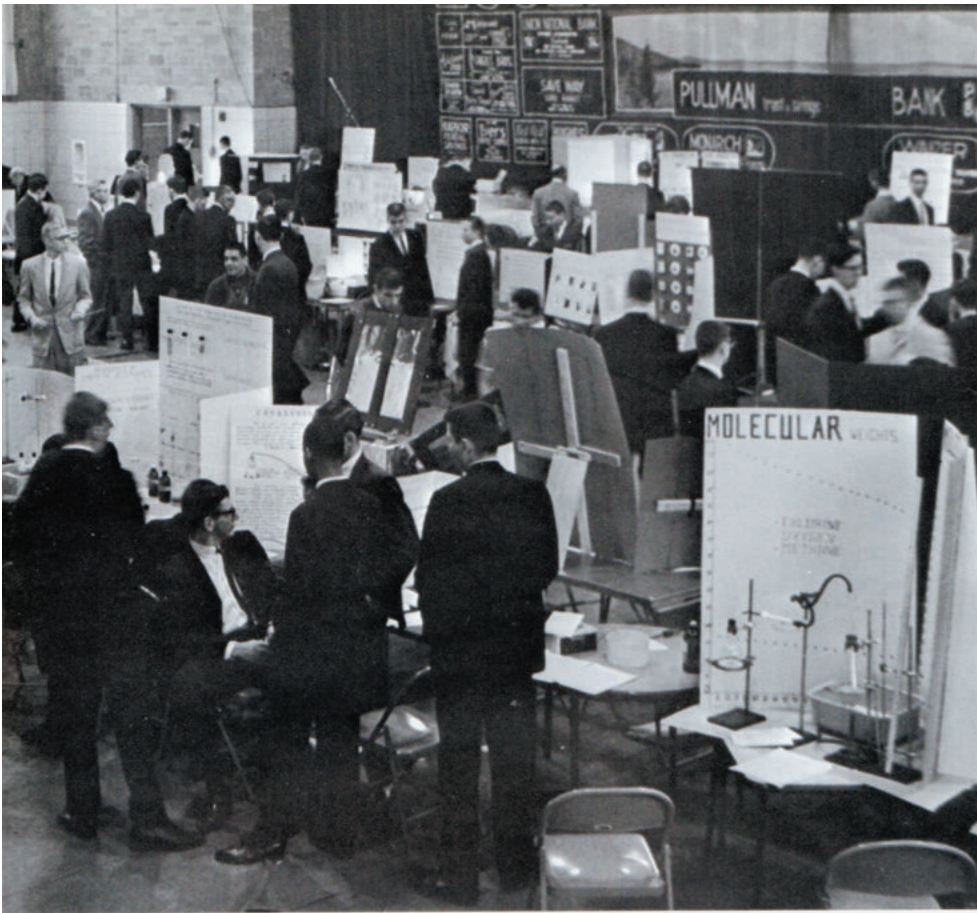

S. Jablonowski has yet to learn that an old grad like P Siska (right, '62) can be a pretty stiff judge.

R. Cyz and W. Novak: "It holds together like peanut butter."

Rev. Albert Le Fleur O.S.A., M. Zygmunt and D. Pochopien seem to wonder what can be done with whatever it is.

On the battle-field of science, 101 combatants.

Out of a field of 101 entrants to the Mendel Science Exposition, 35 were selected as eligible to move on to the District Science Exposition to be held at the International Amphitheater on April 27. Fifty more exhibits took second awards, and sixteen, a third award, in a competition that laid much more stress on a solid science than ever before. It is through this act of searching that science hopes to supply further power for new frontiers.

Little Marconi himself (C. Donati).

"You can jolly well get that thing out of this house" (Lulewicz)

M. Bonsignore and P. McGlave weigh their words carefully for the good sister and judge.

You'd better watch what You're doing, D. Rodal, as long as everyone else is.

What's this? Is Fr. McNabb in the line-up of candidates at the convention?

The convention key-noter was his usual smooth self (D. Santacaterina).

There were moments in the convention not unlike a victory rally. That's G. Farrell aloft, Senior Party V-P

Senator Paul Douglas links arms with the President (of the senior class, that is), D. Aklinski, and Mr Janulis.

The show of signs got rolling later in the campaign, but the Senior Party did its share of shouting — maybe more.

POLITICOS WATCHED

Maybe the seniors were standing in line waiting for the opening of Noah's ark but more likely it was only for the beginning of school.

Whipping up the Senior Party were such political agitators as R. Pelky and P. Scuderi.

S.A.P.P., as perhaps the uninitiated never knew, meant Student Activities Participation Party

Though A.B.L.E. wasn't able to swing the election, it held a real swingin' demonstration.

SENIOR ELECTION OF CLASS OFFICERS

While A.B.L.E. simply stood for what it said, the able men.

Partly to catch the spirit of constitutional government and partly to animate some competitive campaigning for a position holding some prestige, the senior elections outdistance those of the other classes. The former are almost presidential in their import, while the latter are as rural as the election of a sheriff Mr Janulis was something like the Chairman for all three senior parties.

MENDEL MAKE A (CLASS) PRESIDENT

September; Fr. Seary and Fr. McNabb took good hold of the driving reins right from the beginning

Above: October: Joe Magee devised some shifty football tactics intended to clean everybody up

Right: in one way or another

Below: November: School in full swing, but this is a most unlikely situation as well as a rare sight; all our senior with their hands up.

PUT A RING AROUND THE YEAR . . .

Above: Mid-November: "Now, Mr. Pizza-Man, me and ma' boys, we're Mendel Men, see, and we had all the pizza we can stand, see"

Far Right: Still January: That's what is commonly known as hacking.

Right Early November: The Homecoming "lumber-jacks."

Above Right: January: If you guys think you're going to corner Lou, look out.

June — will look like this, as we stand on the outside looking in, (and none too longingly).

... AS THE END DRAWS QUICKLY NEAR

February-March: The symbols of the raffle were the money-filled balloons, top sections, and Fr Hayes' behind the scenes salesmanship.

April: The Queen Contest, more clever than ever with quantity too, for only five candidates, caught you coming and going.

Fr. John McNabb, O.S.A., Principal of Mendel presents a gift to the Queen of the dance, Miss Sally Sabal, who is backed by her sponsor Mel Bechina.

There was applause for the Queen and her court.

SPRING CORONATION DANCE

142

The Spring Coronation Dance at the Willowbrook marked the beginning of the social wind-up for the season with its parties and proms, beside closing off a successful raffle carried on by the Mendel Men. The winners of the cash awards were drawn by the Queen of the dance in the presence of the students, parents and alumni who gathered for the occasion. Open to all classes, the Coronation Dance is meant to be one of the bright spots of the season.

The Queen and her court runners-up: N. Ahrens sponsoring Dee Goeing; A. Vanderberg, Linda Stigall; Sally Sabal, M. Bechina; crown-bearer Lucille Thoma; Gloria Lambert, sponsored by A. Psinas; Pat Hart, A. Schmidt.

The long white line moves on and on toward graduation events and exercises.

WILLOW-BROOK RAPS UP RAFFLE

And then there were just those quiet cokes with some friends.
And, of course, there was applause for the winners of the raffle cash-awards.
