MENDEL

Dear Mendel Men,

We the editors of the Magnificent Mendel MONARCH have a few things to say to you. This entire message is unlike all other letters from the editors in the past. This is a letter full of conceit because it deals with the MONARCH and the MONARCH only. It's a letter full of despair because it deals with the future as much, if not more than the past and present state of affairs. It's also a letter full of hope, a letter full of prayer that someone takes it to heart and sees it fitting to respond.

As all of you know by now, this is the second year in a row that this publication has been late. For this we extend to you no apologies whatsoever. We merely ask you, the students, to believe us when we say that there were innumerable complications that set the workings of the MONARCH far off schedule.

If one is to truly plead his case though, he must also give both sides of the story. The story behind the scenes is the one most students don't know (unfortunately) and it's the bleakest one of all. All we the authors of this letter are trying to do is not bring attention to us but to you.

What we are speaking of is the fact that this book is a magnificent effort, and we are very proud of it, all two of us. You can leaf through this entire book and see that there was much time spent on it and that it was almost worth waiting for. The two of us agree but we contend that we are not so conceited to actually believe that we were the only ones in the entire school capable of such a task.

We began the year with a sizable amount of people who openly expressed the fact that they were ready, willing, and able to do their best towards the effort of getting the yearbook out on time. Once it was evident that it would take much work and sacrifice many dropped out of sight, never to be seen again. Circumstances beyond our control set back deadlines a number of times and eventually it became evident that there was no possible way of getting the book out before dismissal for summer vacation. It was then decided that instead of rushing to get it out early in the summer it would be much more practical to use the extra time to prepare a quality book and have it ready for the students when they returned to school.

This presented problems for many. You see, it was no longer something to use as an excuse to get out of class but a sacrifice of personal time, an extra-curricular activity. Hence, the reason for over 95% of the book being done by two people.

As we refused you apologies, we also ask you for no gratitude. It was a job, as it is a lineman's job to block and a guard's job to press. The only difference was that the rest of the team deserted us and as can only be expected it became a more difficult task and took more time. But in what we considered to be the true Mendel spirit, we did our jobs and did them to the best of our ability.

In order for next year's book even to be published it will take such a spirit from you. We ask only that you learn from the past's mistakes. Your task will be even more difficult than ours in that there wasn't a single person on the staff returning to Mendel. This means that you'll not only have to work harder but learn faster. We wouldn't be writing this letter if we didn't think you could do it.

In closing, our final request is that you enjoy this book. We could ask for nothing better. We also wish you luck next year and truly hope that you outdo us far beyond imagination.

Steven J. Baptista

The Principal's Message

Dear Graduates,

It has been a happy experience to know you and follow you through these past four years. It has been a time of transition and change, but more important a time of growth and maturity. Each class has a personality of its own and like different persons there are qualities that make a class attractive and a joy to be with or to experience. You are one of those classes that will be missed. Your life here spiritually, academically, socially, recreationally has been a good preparation for the real world and I trust that you have sensed this yourselves. No two people take the same impression from an event so I imagine that you have been thrilled or chilled by the Mendel happenings in a way that is unique to you. So I won't try to single out any specific one with the exception of the last and in many ways the most significant. I refer to your graduation ceremony at Orchestra Hall. I was struck with your quiet comfortable seriousness as you listened to our founder, Father John L. Seary, O.S.A., speak to you. Your quiet acceptance of his sound advice and your attention to the student leaders impressed me. Your recognition of the medalists showed maturity as did your quiet acknowledgement of those who have struggled through diligently and had achieved a treasured reward. Your demeanor during the pledge was most thought-provoking and I will repeat it here with the hope and prayer that your willingness to speak it will be accompanied by the strength to fulfill it.

WITH A SOLEMN SENSE OF MY RESPONSIBILITY . . .
I PLEDGE MYSELF . . . TO HOLD MY DIPLOMA AS A SACRED TRUST . . .
AN EMBLEM OF MY OBLIGATION TO SERVE . . . TO HOLD IT WITH UNTARNISHED HONOR TO MYSELF . . . IN GENEROUS LOYALTY TO MENDEL . . .
AND WITH FIDELITY TO MY GOD, MY COUNTRY, AND MY FELLOW-MEN.

And my reply to you then and my prayer for you always is this . . .

MAY THE LORD DIRECT YOU IN ALL YOUR DOINGS, AND FURTHER YOU
AND ENDED IN HIM, YOU MAY GLORIFY HIS HOLY NAME, AND FINALLY BY HIS MERCY OBTAIN EVERLASTING LIFE.

Go you of Mendel, you have many other goals to attain. And you can do it.

Father Gavin

Dedication

We, the yearbook staff of 1976, on this, Mendel's 25th year in existence, see it fitting to dedicate this yearbook to Mendel's founder, Very Rev. John L. Seary. This bicentennial year also marks a milestone in Fr. Seary's life in that it's his 50th year in the priesthood of the order of St. Augustine. The father of Mendel is often seen on campus, has spoken at the last two graduation ceremonies, and is loved by one and all.

Football

This year's Magnificent Mendel Monarchs went through the season without a win. Yet, those who attended the games didn't come away with a bad taste in their mouths because they know statistics mean nothing. While this is the first winless season for Mendel it's also the smallest team, both in numbers and size, Mendel has ever had. We congratulate the football team on a fine season.

Basketball

1976 was a rebuilding year for the Monarch basketball team. Freshman head coach Mike Flaherty took on a team with only one returning starter. This year he will lose but four seniors to graduation and next year he'll have his highest scorer, Ray Collins, returning to lead the team.

Wrestling

This year marked a first for Mendel's wrestling team. It competed on 3 levels and to make it a success, all 3 teams, the freshmen, the frosh-soph, and the varsity, all wrestled their ways through winning seasons. One of the youngest teams head coach Don Ledin has ever had shows great promise for the future.

Cross Country

The 1975-76 cross country season was a successful one for the Mendel Monarchs. The varsity harriers, led by seniors Steve Simington, Tim Sewnig, and Thomas Lewis, finished a respectful 6th place in the city championships.

All eyes, however, must turn to the future. The freshman squad finished an excellent third in the city championships. Leading them were Darrell Scarlett and Sebastian Weaver. Building this around the small but strong sophomore and junior harriers, Mendel's cross country future looks bright.

Freshman Marc Downey kicks it in down the chute at the end of his 2 mile run in the city championships. His 2 teammates looking on are Sebastian Weaver and Al Holley.

Track Country

The 1974-75 season was by far the most successful in all of Mendel's history. The Monarch cindermen carried home two city championship trophies, one for the indoor season and one for the outdoor season. Mendel sent a number of men and relays downstate. Steve Simington placed third in the state in the triple jump.

The expectations for the 1975-76 season are as great. Most of Mendel's top runners are returning and a few excellent freshmen have filled in any blank spots.

All this is overshadowed by the fact that head coach Ed McAllister will not be returning. He has advanced to become a head track and cross country coach at a Chicago area college. He will be long remembered for his hard work and great results in developing a Catholic League track and cross country power for Mendel.

Fellow students,

Another year has passed and once again the Editor takes a pen in hand in order to thank all those people who helped to create the yearbook.

Firstly, however, I would like to apologize for the delay in the delivery of the yearbooks. Much pressure has been placed on the entire staff concerning the late publication of the '76 yearbook. This is partially due to the fact that most of the members of the staff were involved in other distracting activities which didn't leave much time for working on the yearbook. When there was spare time, the staff would simply relax and do nothing. Once again, we apologize.

Many more complications helped to delay this book. We were delayed for three months at the beginning of the year because the '75 yearbook was so poorly assembled that it practically had to be redone by the '76 staff. Consequently, we didn't select a moderator for the '76 Monarch until November. Then during December and January, Capri Studios went out-of-business thereby forcing Mendel to take all pictures at once and delaying the shipment of the pictures by three weeks. Following this, we suffered our decline in staff members.

In spite of the complications against me, I, as Monarch Editor, was not about to give up hope. I am extremely grateful to Tim Sewing for remaining by my side by optimistically overlooking these complications and giving me all the help needed to complete this book. Also, I thank Dr. Labadie for being patient and calm especially through these complications and yet serving as our guiding force without whom we couldn't have completed this book. I would also like to give recognition to Keith Alexander, Leslie Baker, Dale Dworak, Sharon Sewing, Bill Bautista, and Stephen Unton, for small services such as typing, organizing pictures, drawing layouts, etc. These services were temporary, however they did help to create a smooth operation and they shouldn't be forgotten.

In conclusion, I would like to leave all of you with a few thoughts. I hope the '77 staff isn't confronted with the delays and snags that we encountered. I wish you luck. To the Class of 1976, I hope all of you fulfill all of your dreams and desires and hopefully we will all get together again.
